

The FCC should not implement any proposal that would lessen Indiana's Telephone Privacy law protections. Indiana's law has been effective for my home. We do not get the calls from those persistent, harassing sales people that won't take "no thank you" for an answer. For people that can't hang up on these sales people, this law is a blessing. Please don't fix what isn't broke!